

The Uniqueness of a Woman

Edwin Louis Cole

I Corinthians 11:1-9

Man was created for the glory of God. Woman was created for the glory of man.

Genesis 1:26-27, 28, 29

Genesis 2:7

Genesis 2:15, 18-24

Man has the capacity to manifest the virtues, attributes, and characteristics of Jesus Christ in his life.

Kingdom of God – Positive Principles

Kingdom of Satan – Negative Perversions

The reproduction principle established at Creation is basic in human life.

Man's uniqueness is basically satisfied in relationship to his job.

The reproduction process gives him fulfillment in his life.

Power of life, power to create

Creative power of the tongue

Power to reproduce, to give life

Woman was created to be the completion of a man, not his competition.

Man: Strengths of the masculine

Woman: Strengths of the feminine

Genesis 5:1-2 – Strengths in union

I Peter 3:7

Ephesians 5

A woman's love is a gift. You are only a steward of that love.

Woman's uniqueness is satisfied in relationship to the man.

Woman must feel unique to submit. Courtship is a form of ministry.

3 things both a woman and God want from a man:

Consistency, decisiveness, strength